Edinburgh Printmakers are delighted to announce this year's Christmas Market at Castle Mills! It will take place in our beautiful heritage building and coincide with the Studio Open Days, with various workshops and children's activities.

We are looking for inspiring and creative practitioners, collectives and creative start-ups to champion during a weekend long celebration of crafts and creative making. Examples of work we have displayed in the past include jewellery, homeware, clothing and artworks. We hope to welcome a large, engaged audience with an even larger appetite for visual arts to experience your work and purchase Christmas presents.

We welcome applications from practitioners at all stages of their development who are looking to reach audiences in Fountainbridge, one of Edinburgh's rapidly transforming neighbourhoods, ten minutes from Haymarket Station and adjacent to Tollcross, Bruntsfield, Gorgie and Dalry. We are offering tables and half tables for both days and are hoping to showcase an all-encompassing display of artworks, crafts, photography, local products, digital and designer works, in line with Edinburgh Printmakers open access and community-based core commitments.
