"A huge thank you to the whole team at Edinburgh Printmakers for hosting our team strategy day today. The room was beautiful, spacious, with loads of natural light, and encouraged really creative thinking from the team. The building is stunning, and it felt really special to be in the heart of it today. The catering from Holy Cow was amazing - brilliant food, great value and really lovely service. The team went above and beyond to make us feel welcome, and I wouldn't hesitate to recommend Edinburgh Printmakers for anyone looking for meeting space."
